Art Unit: 2635

1. This Office action is in response to the amendment filed May 18, 2004. Claims 28-43 are pending. Claims 1-27 have been cancelled. Claims 28, 32, 33, and 35-36 have been amended as requested. The specification has been amended as requested.

Prior rejections withdrawn

2. The prior rejections have been withdrawn in view of the amendment.

Prior rejections maintained

3. NONE.

New rejections

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 28-29, and 32-37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Yang '498.

Regarding claim 28, Figure 5 teaches plurality of keys where each key represents a syllable of a Chinese phonetic alphabet. The syllable is either a initial or a semi-initial.

Regarding claim 29, see Figure 5.

Regarding claim 32, final symbol groups are represented on keys in figure 5.

Regarding claims 33-37, see Figure 5.

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 30-31 and 38-43 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yang.

Regarding claims 30-31, the particular ordering of keys is considered obvious choice any key may be located at any position of a keyboard. The location is dependent on the preference of the user and particular application.

Regarding claim 38, the keys in figure 5 are distributed onto the available keys in sets. The particular association of syllables with a particular key is considered obvious since a keyboard does not limit the association of a function with a key and the desired location is dependent on the needs of the user.

Regarding claims 39, the distribution of keys is dependent on the available number of keys. It would have been obvious to spread function out to many keys if the number of keys is large.

Regarding claims 40-43, as stated earlier, the location of a particular function with a particular key is considered to be obvious.

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
